

D&B iAccess

Assess your business partners and find the right buyers in India all on one platform

Use D&B iAccess, the most comprehensive cloud database of Indian companies. It is your next-generation online business intelligence platform that provides all the information you need under one roof.

D&B iAccess can help you

Get qualified sales leads

Monitor your portfolio

Deal with compliant entities

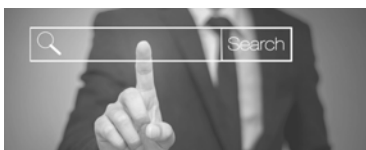

Assess creditworthiness

Evaluate supply chain partners

Company search

Detailed company information on millions of Indian businesses to help you ascertain the existence and credibility of an entity. There are varied sources from where we access, standardize and append the information to enrich the data cloud and deliver more insights.

Prospects

Authoritative SaaS based platform to help you accelerate through the largest Indian company database and related functional contacts across all levels to develop more impactful go-to-market strategies.

Watchlist

Online compliance checks and monitoring tool to help you get access to a watch list of 1 million potential red flag entities including related entities and common principals.

What you get

	Company information		Detrimental / compliance information		Site visit details
	Functional contact information		List of legal cases against entity		Latest news on company
	Financial information		Powerful indicators		Proprietary D&B reports

Contact the nearest NSIC office today by scanning the QR code

